

ICC Code of ConductAMENDMENTS FOR ICC DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM EVENTS AND WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL MATCHES

This cover page for ICC Development Program events and Women's International matches is to be read in conjunction with the ICC Code of Conduct.

This code applies to the following:

- ICC Intercontinental Cup fixtures.
- Women's Test Matches, ODIs and Twenty20 fixtures.
- Women's World Cup Qualifying Events (Global and Regional pathway events).
- World Cricket League Events (Global and Regional pathway events).
- U19 Cricket World Cup Qualifying Events (Global and Regional pathway events).

1. PRINCIPLESRules and Penalties

Any references to financial penalties will not apply.

Match Referee

If the assigned Match Referee is not physically present at the match all references to 'the Match Referee or Referee' will be replaced by a nominee, 'the Match Manager'.

- The Match Manager will fulfil all the roles assigned to the Match Referee, excluding the investigation or adjudicating of alleged breaches of the Rules of Conduct.
- The role of the Match Manager, in the case of any reports on breaches of the Rules of Conduct (as outlined in Section E), will be to ensure the assigned Match Referee receives these reports within the timelines as outlined in Section E. The Match Referee will then fulfil these roles remotely.
- The appointment of the Match Manager will be the responsibility of the Home Board.

2. CLAUSES & REFERENCE CHANGESSection A - Definitions

The following definitions are to replace those definitions listed in the official Code and are applicable to all references in the Code to Test Matches and ODI Matches.

ODI Match:

- A limited-over's international match played under the auspices of the ICC Development Program or Women's International matches (as outlined above).

Operating ManualTest Match
